

HERITAGE WEEK 2017 AT THE CRAWFORD ART GALLERY, CORK

19 – 26 AUGUST

SATURDAY 19 AUGUST

- MAKE A PRINT UNDER THE GOLDIE FISH 10am, 12 noon and 2pm

Free Print Making workshops booking essential

Taking inspiration from the exhibition Under the Goldie Fish, Views of Cork from the Collection, participants will make a print to take home.

A collaboration between Crawford Art Gallery and Cork Printmakers, the print making workshops will take place at 10am, 12 noon and 2pm. (each session is 2 hours long). No prior experience needed. Children under 10 have to be accompanied by an adult. Not suitable for under 6's. The event is free but places are limited & conditional to prior booking.

- GUIDED GALLERY TOUR 2pm

Discover national treasures in the heart of the city! Voyage across 200 years from the historic Canova casts to the art of now.
The tour will last approx. 1 hour.

TUESDAY 22 AUGUST

- ART IN THE DOING - FELT MAKING SESSION 2 to 4 pm
booking essential

'There is art in the doing' suggests artist and shepherd Orla Barry, and for her exhibition she will fill a gallery space with sheep's fleece! Join us for felt 'doing' and making during Heritage Week to learn more about felt-making traditions and techniques.

No prior experience needed. Children under 10 have to be accompanied by an adult. Not suitable for under 6's. The event is free but places are limited & conditional to prior booking.

THURSDAY 24 AUGUST

- ART IN THE DOING - FELT MAKING SESSION 5:30 – 7:30pm
booking essential
The event is free but places are limited & conditional to prior booking.

- BREAKING RAINBOW      ORLA BARRY      In Conversation    6pm

Meet artist and shepherd Orla Barry who will talk about Breaking Rainbows and previous work. With a year's production of wool generated on her farm and 2 performers, Orla Barry addresses our complex relationship with nature.

FRIDAY 25 AUGUST

- CANOVA CASTS 2019      1pm
MEET EOGHAN DALTON CONSERVATOR

Eoghan Daltun has practised as a conservator of sculpture throughout Ireland since 2001. Eoghan will talk about the restoration of the Canova Casts at the Crawford Art Gallery and about sculpture conservation in general.

SATURDAY 26 AUGUST

- TOUR UNDER THE GOLDIE FISH      11 am
 booking essential

Join architectural historian Tom Spalding, on a Tour of Under the Goldie Fish, Views of Cork. Tom's wealth of knowledge about the streets and buildings of Cork guarantees to intrigue and inform. The event is free but places are limited & conditional to prior booking.

- CITY TOUR UNDER THE GOLDIE FISH      1:30pm
 booking essential

Uncover secrets of our city with Tom Spalding. The tour will begin at the Crawford Art Gallery and will end at Elisabeth Fort, via the Coal Quay and Grand Parade. Not be missed! Comfortable footwear and weather appropriate clothing recommended.

The event is free but places are limited & conditional to prior booking.

- GUIDED GALLERY TOUR      2pm

Discover national treasures in the heart of the city! Voyage across 200 years from the historic Canova casts to the art of now.

MORE INFORMATION AND BOOKINGS:

Contact Anne or Emma at 021 4907857 / 021 4907862. www.crawfordartgallery.ie

An Chomhairle Oidhreachta
The Heritage Council

